

Governance Now is kindly sponsored by

10:00	Registration and refreshments
10:30	Welcome Hilary Carty, Director, Clore Leadership
10:40	Keynote 1 : Building the high performance Board Ros Kerslake OBE, Chief Executive, The National Lottery Heritage Fund Keynote 2: When the going gets tough Caroline Thomson, Chair, Oxfam and Chair, Digital UK
11:30	Morning refreshments
12:00	STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP IN UNSTABLE TIMES This panel will explore the role governance has played in shaping the survival strategies of two key cultural organisations in a city context. SPEAKERS: Jim Beirne MBE, Chief Executive, Live Theatre, Newcastle Iain Watson, Director, Tyne & Wear Archives & Museums	STAYING IN FINANCIAL CONTROL A practical workshop to walk trustees through the essentials that all Trustees need to know for staying on top of the finances. FACILITATOR: Tom Wilcox Partner, CounterCulture	GETTING TO GRIPS WITH SAFEGUARDING An introductory workshop to reinforce your understanding of the principles of safeguarding. FACILITATOR: Elizabeth Chamberlain Head of Policy & Public Services, NCVO	ACTION LEARNING SET This interactive session presents an opportunity to share governance experiences and concerns in confidence to explore and find peer-led solutions. FACILITATOR: Ruth Cook Managing Director, Action Learning Associates
13:00	LUNCH

13:50	HORIZON SCANNING Arts Council England: 10-Year Strategy Governance Now – Governance Tomorrow A round up of recent policy and practice governance changes and predictions for 2020 by Clore Governance Associates Keith Arrowsmith and Prue Skene CBE
14:10	LIGHTNING TALKS Four fast-paced bite-size talks to share personal experiences of critical moments and leadership learning. Speakers to be announced
15:00	COMMUNITY VOICES How can we create governance structures that are accessible, relevant and responsive to our citizens and communities? This panel will examine the pros and cons of a range of models for participatory governance. SPEAKERS: Joanna Rowlands, Chair, Heart of Glass Kim Evans, Chair, Clean Break & Trustee, Forward Arts Foundation Further speakers to be announced	BREXIT: WHAT NEXT? An open discussion on what boards should be doing in the short, medium and long-term to respond to Brexit, linking in to valuable sources of information and support. FACILITATOR: Deborah Annetts, CEO, Incorporated Society of Musicians Further speakers to be announced	GETTING TO GRIPS WITH BOARD PERFORMANCE An active workshop to explore tools and techniques to evaluate your board’s performance and to consider what happens next once the evaluation is complete? FACILITATOR Gill Thewlis Director, Aperté	CYBER SECURITY: 3 THINGS EVERY BOARD SHOULD KNOW Practical guidance, top tips and tools for securing your organisation from cyber security threats. FACILITATOR: Simon Whittaker Cyber Security Director, Vertical Structure
16:00	Keynote 3: Staying the course Moira Sinclair , Chief Executive, Paul Hamlyn Foundation and Chair, Clore Leadership
16:20	Closing message, refreshments & networking
17:00	CLOSE			